GRADUATE BUSINESS PROGRAMS VALUES STATEMENT

The University of Notre Dame was built on a foundation of faith and leadership exemplified by Father Edward Sorin. As members of the Mendoza College of Business, we affirm our commitment to his vision of a College serving as a force for good in the world.

Thus, we espouse the following values in our graduate programs:

COMMUNITY & RESPONSIBILITY

- Foster camaraderie and support among students, faculty, administration, and alumni
- Serve the community through mentorship and collaboration
- Exercise stewardship of resources entrusted to us
- Further an understanding of our responsibility to the global community

EXCELLENCE

- Strive always to meet the highest personal and professional standards
- Challenge each other to reach their highest potential
- Pursue academic achievement passionately
- Integrate ethical behavior with excellence

INTEGRITY

- Deliver on our commitments to others
- Demonstrate moral courage even in the face of adversity
- Practice fairness, forthrightness and transparency
- Develop a deeper understanding of our moral obligations

LEADERSHIP

- Inspire others through vision and collaboration
- Learn from and serve others
- Cultivate growth through trust, respect and accountability
- Exercise wisdom, empathy and honesty in decision making

SPIRITUALITY

- Embrace the spiritual dimension of each person
- Nurture a faith-seeking community by respecting all religious traditions
- Maintain balance in personal and professional endeavors
- Seek self-discovery through spiritual development and reflection
